GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 20, 2025

Easter Sunday
John 20: 1-9

When I was a young boy, my parents told me about their wedding. Then a few years later, they showed me my mother's wedding dress and my dad's suit. It was astonishing to see and touch garments that connected me to the event that led to my existence. Of course, I already believed they were married based on their word. But these holy garments made the event real and tangible for me.

Something like this is at play when St. John reports encountering in Jesus' tomb, "the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place" (John 20:7). Those two separate cloths, for his head and for his body respectively, meant a great deal to St. John and to the early Christians. Some years after the resurrection, there surfaced reports of two cloths with unusual characteristics, one bearing the image of a crucified man's body, another smaller one with the image of a wounded man's face. Some call them the Shroud of Turin and the Veil of Manoppello; they both can be seen today.

These two cloths have a long and complicated history, and scholars debate aspects of them. If you're curious, I encourage you to read about them. To be clear, I believe in the resurrection of Jesus because of the testimony of eyewitnesses and the gift of faith in the Church. Nevertheless, seeing these two mysterious cloths have made the life-giving event of Jesus' resurrection more real and tangible for me. Maybe they will for you, too.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA - FOMENTAR UNA COMPREENSIÓN MÁS PROFUNDA DE ESCRITURA

20 de abril de 2025

Domingo de Pascua
Juan 20: 1-9

Cuando era niño, mis padres me hablaron de su boda. Luego, unos años más tarde, me mostraron el vestido de novia de mi madre y el traje de mi padre. Fue asombroso ver y tocar prendas que me conectaron con el evento que me llevó a mi existencia. Por supuesto, ya creía que estaban casados según su palabra. Pero estas vestiduras sagradas hicieron que el evento fuera real y tangible para mí.

Algo así está en juego cuando San Juan informa haber encontrado en la tumba de Jesús, "el lienzo que había cubierto su cabeza, no con los lienzos de la sepultura, sino enrollado en un lugar aparte" (Juan 20:7). Esas dos telas separadas, para su cabeza y para su cuerpo respectivamente, significaban mucho para San Juan y para los primeros cristianos. Algunos años después de la resurrección, surgieron informes de dos telas con características inusuales, una con la imagen del cuerpo de un hombre crucificado, otra más pequeña con la imagen del rostro de un hombre herido. Algunos los llaman la Sábana Santa de Turín y el Velo de Manoppello; Ambos se pueden ver hoy en día.

Estas dos telas tienen una larga y complicada historia, y los estudiosos debaten aspectos de ellas. Si tienes curiosidad, te animo a que leas sobre ellos. Para ser claros, creo en la resurrección de Jesús debido al testimonio de testigos oculares y el don de la fe en la Iglesia. Sin embargo, ver estas dos telas misteriosas ha hecho que el evento vivificante de la resurrección de Jesús sea más real y tangible para mí. Tal vez también lo hagan para ti.
