NEW WEEKEND MASS SCHEDULE

Following Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio's directions, we at St. Teresa's are exploring a different weekend Mass schedule. This schedule would begin January 1, 2018. This weekend we will be asking your opinion. We have cards made with 6 possible suggestions for the Sunday Schedule. Two Masses on Sunday, one in English, one in Spanish, two hours apart. Please mark your one preferred schedule and leave in baskets on exit tables. These cards will be tabulated and brought to the next Parish Council meeting on Monday, September 18th for further discussion. Thank you for your patience, interest and dedication to St. Teresa's Parish. We are all aware that change is never easy, but, with God's grace, we will continue to build up the kingdom of God.

HURRICANE HARVEY RELIEF

As announced verbally last weekend, a special second collection will be taken today at all Masses, after communion, for the victims of Hurricane Harvey in Texas, Louisiana and the South. Thank you, as always, for your generosity.

UPDATE SCHOOL AND RECTORY ROOFS

Last week I signed a check for $346,891.50 - the largest check I have ever signed in my not-so-short life! That payment only represents half of the cost of the new school roof. As school has already begun, the essential work has been completed—obviously work cannot be done while classes are in session. Some minor repairs and replacements can be done on off-hours. Meanwhile, the new rectory roof is complete. We have not received the final bill yet for that. We are also looking into some repairs on the church roof. From the vantage point of the school roof, we have noticed missing tiles, brick and mortar on the upper church roof. Thanks to all who have helped make this necessary work possible by your generosity and patience.
