HAVE YOU NOTICED??

Hope you are noticing the constant work being done in our parish— refinishing of the church front doors, beautiful landscaping, well maintained air conditioning, immaculate interior, new floral arrangements almost every week.

As Pastor my only concern is that our weekly collection has remained basically the same since I arrived 3 years ago.

Remember, all that is done is for the Glory of God. It is His house first and foremost. Yet, at the same time it is our House.

Please, if you could reach a little deeper in your pocket for 2 or 3 dollars more each week, God will bless you for it, and I would greatly appreciate it.

Since the vast amount of Parishioners are not register - during the month of July and August we will be taking up a second collection for air conditioning.

God Love You,
Fr. Conlon

:TE HAS DADO CUENTA?

Espero que estés notando el trabajo constante que se realiza en nuestra parroquia: restauración de las puertas de la iglesia, jardinería preciosa, aire acondicionado bien mantenido, interior impecable, nuevos arreglos florales casi cada semana.

Como pastor, mi única preocupación es que nuestra colecta semanal se haya mantenido básicamente igual desde que llegué hace 3 años.

Recuerda, todo lo que se hace es por la Gloria de Dios. Es su casa ante todo. Sin embargo, al mismo tiempo es nuestra Casa.

Por favor, si pudieras sacar un poco más de tu bolsillo para conseguir 2 o 3 dólares más cada semana, Dios te bendicirá por ello, y te lo agradecería mucho.

“Dado que la gran mayoría de feligreses no están registrados,” durante los meses de julio y agosto haremos una segunda colecta para el aire acondicionado.

Dios te bendiga,
Fr. Conlon

VESTIMENTA DE LA IGLESIA - UN RECORDATORIO AMISTOSO

A medida que disfrutamos del clima más cálido, siempre es útil recordar que la modestia y la dignidad en la vestimenta benefician nuestra adoración común a Dios en esta hermosa Iglesia. Ciertamente lo alentamos a usar ropa cómoda, especialmente en los días más cálidos. Sin embargo, por respeto, evite usar ropa que sea demasiado informal. Al hacerlo, mostramos reverencia por Dios y nuestro acto de Adoración Sagrada. (Recuerde, nuestra iglesia tiene aire acondicionado)

SUMMER HEALTH TIPS

The summer brings many outdoor activities that can present unpleasant outcomes. Among these are sunburn, dehydration and intestinal upsets from contaminated food.

Here are some practical ways to have fun and a safe summer for the whole family.

Seek shade to limit exposure to UV light that is strongest between 10 am and 4 pm.

Apply sunscreen with UV protection 30 SPF or above. Don't forget your face, ears and neck. Use waterproof sunscreen while at the pool or beach.

Wear lightweight clothing on exposed skin as an added protection.

UV blocking sunglasses protect the delicate skin around the eyes. Larger glasses offer more protection. Don't forget the children. Check labels that state "UV absorption up to 400 nm" or "Meets ANSI UV Requirements."

Wide-brimmed hats prevent UV rays from hitting the sensitive spots on your face and keeps your skin looking young and wrinkle-free. Scalps can get sunburned even through hair.

Drink plenty of fluids (even if you are not thirsty). Anyone on fluid restriction should consult with your doctor before increasing fluids.

Alcohol intake can cause dehydration along with coffee, sugary drinks, fried foods, soy sauce and bouillon. Best to watch caffeine and salty food products.

Summer's fresh fruits are filled with water and help hydrate.

When transporting foods to the park, keep cold foods cold. Anything left out more that two hours or if the outside temperature is 90 or above only one hour. When in doubt-throw it away. Use separate carriers for hot foods and raw meats.

Finally, practice safe food handling and prevent food contamination by washing your hands-frequently.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 11:25-30

This weekend, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Unlike most nations, the United States was not founded primarily on a shared ethnicity, language, or culture. Instead, our founders built a political community out of diverse peoples united by a shared vision of liberty. That vision echoes something deep in the Christian mystery revealed in today's Gospel.

Jesus returns to his hometown. The people see only what is familiar: the carpenter, the son of Mary, one of their own. As Mark tells us, "They took offense at him. Jesus said, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.'" Their narrow vision blinds them. Jesus has come to inaugurate a new communion that transcends geography, bloodlines, and culture. He has come to unite all people in himself.

At its best, America's national unity reflects this possibility, which fully subsists only in the Catholic Church. Our unity is not based on ancestry or tribe, but on a shared commitment to higher ideals. For this reason, we can love our country with gratitude while situating patriotism within the broader horizon of faith.

Rooted in Christ, we are less vulnerable to the unholy tribalism that threatens civic life and faith. This weekend, let us thank God for our nation and pray that we also live as citizens of Heaven in Jesus Christ.

XIV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Mateo 11, 25-30

Vivimos en tiempos donde la gratitud y la confianza en la familia y en la sociedad han perdido su valor. Muy poco se agradece y la confianza está muchas veces a prueba entre las personas. ¿Dónde están esos sentimientos de aprecio por las cosas buenas? ¿Dónde se ha quedado la confianza del uno para el otro? Reconocer estos sentimientos en las personas que nos rodean y en nosotros mismos es un verdadero reto. Hoy, la Palabra de Dios nos muestra cómo Jesús es agradecido con su Padre: "Yo te alabo, Padre, Señor del cielo y de la tierra, porque has mantenido ocultas estas cosas a los sabios y entendidos y las has revelado a la gente sencilla" (Mateo 11:25). Jesús nos da muestra de la confianza que existe entre el Padre y el Hijo.

Actualmente, ¿cuáles serán las cosas sencillas que debemos perseguir? La sencillez, la confianza y la gratitud, de seguro, se encuentran en una búsqueda sincera con el mismo Hijo de Dios. La base es la relación personal que llevemos con el Señor por medio de la oración y el acercamiento sincero a los sacramentos de la Reconciliación y la Eucaristía. Los cristianos no debemos permitir que la tibieza y el cansancio nos alejen de la búsqueda de un encuentro íntimo con Jesucristo para aprender de sus enseñanzas. Cada día es una oportunidad para un nuevo comienzo y para seguirlo con fidelidad. Recordemos que "su yugo es suave y su carga ligera". ¡Es la promesa al seguirlo!
